There is a difference "I am at a loss to understand why," says a letter to the editor of a national newspaper, "if the public had a right to know what was in the stolen 'Pentagon Papers,' you consider the public did not have a right to know what was deleted from the documentary, 'The Selling of the Pentagon.'"

"Apparently you consider it censorship when the government deletes certain information from the public domain but it is only editing when the news media do the same thing. Why?"

There is one obvious answer: Neither the New York Times and other newspapers which printed the "Pentagon Papers" nor the CBS Television network, which produced the highly controversial "Selling," are governments.

They do not have the power to tax. They do not have the power to make laws. They do not have the power to conclude treaties with foreign governments or to draft young men and send them overseas to fight in undeclared wars.

Until such time as they do have these powers over the lives and fortunes and the sacred honor of Americans, the business or professional secrets which a newspaper or television network or any other private business may keep from the general public are simply not to be equated with those concealed by the government from its own citizens. —Gastonia (N.C.) The Fair Sex And The FBI

Two women who apparently meet all the qualifications for becoming FBI agents except one are all set to challenge the legality of their exclusion.

The women, both young lawyers, say they have been turned down for the job because they are women. One of them, Mrs. Cynthia Edgar, alleges that an FBI personnel man told her applications from women are not considered because "women do not command enough respect" and "could not handle combat situations."

If it is FBI practice to automatically reject women applicants, it is obviously unfair. Men may be better suited for certain phases of FBI work, but it follows that there are other phases that could be done as well and even better by women.

Women, after all, have been known to commit crimes the same as men. So why shouldn't women have a place in crime fighting the same as men. There's no reason to think that women's investigative talents are inferior to men and a woman FBI agent could just as well conduct those routine security checks on pending federal appointees.

Anyway, it's surprising that Mrs. Edgar is having difficulty. If she ever does get on the FBI payroll, watch out. A name like that can take her right to the top and keep her there forever. —Florence (S.C.) Morning News

Amazing Innovation
A middle Tennessee tourist friend of ours, just back from a sight-seeing visit to Kansas, was overcome by one discovery out there.

Joins Woman's League

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Attorney Byron Johnson has joined the Idaho chapter of the League of Women Voters as an associate member.

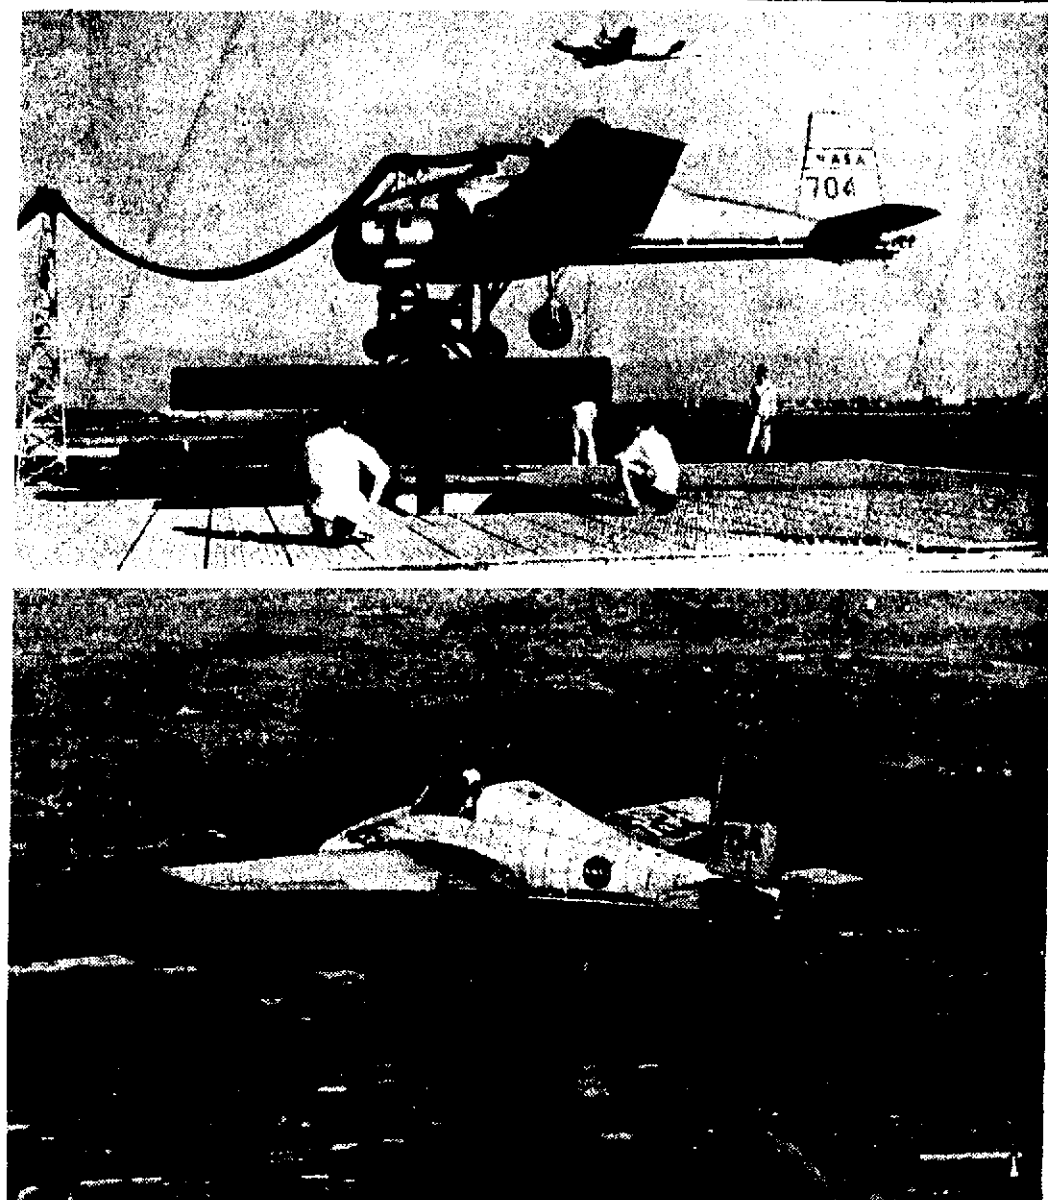

Joy Buersmeyer, league state president, says Johnson has no voting rights but can participate in other activities of the nonpartisan group.

She said Johnson apparently is the league's first male member. Men cannot be admitted to full membership.

"I intend to be active," said Johnson. "I am hopeful it will be instructive to male-oriented groups to show that the League of Women Voters has no objection to having men in its organization."

Club Owner Sues in LR Obscenity Case

The suit was filed by B & E Enterprises Inc. and individually by Robert E. Troutt, the firm's president, against Pros. Atty. James Guy Tucker Jr. and Police Chief Gale Weeks of Little Rock.

Judge J. Smith Henley, after a short hearing, denied a petition in the suit for a temporary restraining order barring further arrests of performers at the club, the Gaslite Club, pending a final settlement of one conviction against two performers.

The judge acted after Tucker said he had no plan to instigate more charges against the club's employees for any future performances while the existing conviction is being litigated.

Weeks did not attend the hearing, but Henley said that if Tucker had proposed to initiate no additional charge, the judge could see no reason why Weeks would not cooperate. Tucker pointed out, however, that the charge — indecent exposure — is one which officers themselves may bring if the act is performed in their presence. In such a case, the prosecutor said, he is bound by law to prosecute.

Two performers at the club were fined $50 and costs each in Municipal Court this week. The conviction has been appealed to Circuit Court.

The suit asks that a three-judge federal panel be convened to issue a declaratory judgment that certain state laws are unconstitutional on grounds that they are vague, too broad and otherwise invalid.

Troutt asserts in the suit that the entertainment is "artistic expression of dance forms that have never been determined to be indecent or obscene," and said that state laws violate the plaintiffs rights under the 1st, 4th, 5th and 14th amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

Security Guard Charged by FBI
LOS ANGELES (AP) — An unemployed security guard was arrested Thursday on a charge he wrote Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., a letter threatening him with "bodily harm."

Loan for White River Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Farmers Home Administration has approved a $1,917,000 loan for the White River Rural Water Association to extend service to 1,600 families in Washington County.

Communities to be connected are Hindsville, Spring Valley, Mayfield, Goshen, Wesley, Forum and Alabama, according to the office of Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark.

Dock Workers Strain Their Pocketbooks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 15,000 West Coast longshoremen on strike for 100 days have had some severe strains on their pocketbooks.

The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union pays no strike benefits, but members could generally count on one day of work per week handling military cargo, mail and passenger vessels.

To fill the gap between their normal weekly pay, which dropped from about $150-$180 to less than $40, many bought food stamps, put their wives to work, borrowed or used their savings.

Nonetheless, some members were reluctant to return to work under a court order obtained after President Nixon invoked the Taft-Hartley Act.

"There's no law that says you have to go up to that window and get work," said a husky longshoreman, who like his companions refused to allow his name to be used. "The President doesn't have any business in this."

Another striker said he objected especially that "we have to go back to work for wages from a five-year-old contract. We've had a 90-cent raise over a five-year period."

Nonstriking ILWU locals have assessed members to help pay the administrative cost of the strike and to provide no-interest loans to strikers.

Some strikers applied for unemployment payments but were refused.

Sympathizers, including Cesar Chavez's United Farmworkers Organizing Committee, have donated food that has been distributed from the union office. The brother of a striker daily provides day-old bread from a bakery.

One weatherbeaten worker said he doesn't expect the rank and file to balk at returning to work Saturday, as ordered by ILWU President Harry Bridges.

Black Stirs Up Storm in California

By BILL STALL
Associated Press Writer

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The first black ever elected to the California Senate is stirring up a political storm as he tries to set the stage for the election of the state's first senator of Mexican-American ancestry.

Mervyn M. Dymally, a 45-year-old Los Angeles attorney and chairman of the Senate Reapportionment Committee, unveiled this week his plan for redrawing the 40 Senate districts to reflect population changes between 1960 and 1970.

There, stretching across heavily Mexican-American East Los Angeles—in something of a bat shape—was a brand new 2nd District.

"It creates a new district in East Los Angeles which I predict will result in the election of a Chicano state senator," said Dymally, a Democrat.

"This Mexican-American district thus will correct a longstanding ethnic abuse which shortchanged a major community of people in California."

Although election of a Chicano would not be guaranteed, the Mexican-Americans who make up 70 per cent of the district's population of 497,930 would have political command of the area.

The district would have 153,548 registered voters, 68 per cent of them Democrats. But Chicanos are becoming increasingly bitter toward Democrats because of the 1960 reapportionment.

Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan has accused Democrats of gerrymandering 10 years ago to gain partisan advantage at the expense of Mexican-Americans.

Dymally's plan came under attack from several sides at his committee's first hearing on the proposal Thursday.

Republicans are angered because it does away with the Northern California district of Senate GOP Leader Fred Marshall.

Some Los Angeles County Democrats are angered because their districts were trimmed of Democrats and squeezed out toward the more conservative suburbs to make room for the new district.

"What you are telling me is if we wait until 1974, we will have the opportunity to elect one out of 40 senators," said Miguel Garcia, a representative of the Mexican-American Legal Defense Fund.

Man Arrested for Sale of Marijuana

Friday night a man listed as Robert Prater, 24, was arrested and charged with possession and sale of marijuana. The arrest was made by Chief Willis and Officers William Haltom and David Sulzer.

They were acting on numerous tips and had been working on the case for several days. After the arrest a search warrant was obtained and officers found several hundred dollars worth of marijuana in Prater's automobile and at his home on the Hopewell loop.

He was turned over to the County for prosecution.

Russia Ousts 21 British in Retaliation

By FRANK CREPEAU
Associated Press Writer

MOSCOW (AP) — The Kremlin has retaliated for Britain's mass ouster of Soviet officials and declared that future relations between Moscow and London "solely depends on the British."

The Foreign Ministry ordered Friday the expulsion of four British diplomats and a businessman and said it was barring re-entry for 9 former diplomats, 12 businessmen and a scholar.

The ministry also said it would not receive Britain's foreign secretary, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, who had planned a visit to Moscow next year, and it canceled the November visit to Britain of Foreign Trade Minister Nikolai Patolichev.

The action came exactly two weeks after Britain announced it was expelling 90 Soviet officials and denying re-entry visas to 15 others because they were Soviet spies. The Russian spy ring was exposed, British officials said, by a Soviet official who defected.

The Kremlin ministry said it was "compelled to take measures dictated by the prevailing situation."

"The continued stay in the Soviet Union of a number of officials of the embassy and other British offices who are engaged, as it has become known, in activities incompatible with their official status, would contradict the interests of the security of the Soviet Union."

The names of those expelled were not given.

The statement added: "It solely depends on the British side whether Soviet-British relations will continue to aggravate or this undesirable development will be stopped and normal relations will be restored between the U.S.S.R. and Britain."

British Ambassador Sir John Killick was summoned to the ministry and told of the Kremlin's decision.

Walker to Aid Mills for President

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — West Memphis advertising executive Deloss Walker said Thursday he was volunteering his services to help elect Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., president.

Walker, who handled the gubernatorial campaign of Gov. Dale Bumpers, said he had no contractual arrangement with Mills, but was advising the leaders in the Mills for president campaign.

Walker said he had been involved in the Mills movement since its beginning and that some of the early news releases concerning Mills' "noncandidacy" had come from his office.

Mills has said he is not a candidate for the presidency but would accept a draft by the Democratic National Convention.

Tidbits of Yesterday: They May Be Gone But They're Not Forgotten

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is the greatest bargain in life. It costs nothing, requires no upkeep, and lasts as long as you do. It can entertain and amuse you in moments dear or far. It is our memories indeed that decorate our days and bless our lives.

You have a good store of them yourself if you can look back and remember when—

Bob Hope was a promising young song and dance man. People stayed up later to get a new station on the radio than they do now to watch the late show on television.

Folks rarely bothered to lock the front door unless they were going away on a long vacation. Automobiles and phonographs had one thing in common—they wouldn't start until they had been hand-cranked.

You could tell a girl parochial student by her fine penmanship. A small-town druggist didn't really need to be able to decipher the doctor's prescriptions—he knew as well as the doc what medicines would be prescribed in a given situation anyway.

A good housewife always gave the family Bible a good dusting the day the minister planned to call.

Your knowledge of local gossip picked up immediately when you had a party line telephone installed.

A fellow knew pretty well whether his girl really cared for him by whether she took the trouble to put nuts in the home-

Inquiry Into Withdrawal of Telecast

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the House communications subcommittee says he has started an inquiry into the Public Broadcasting Service's withdrawal of a segment of its "Great American Dream Machine."

If the news reports about the deleted TV segment are true, "it would seem that an oblique type of censorship has been exerted by an arm of the federal government," chairman Torbert H. Macdonald, D-Mass., said Thursday.

The segment, in which three men claimed the FBI encouraged them to involve radicals in bombing incidents, was withdrawn by Hartford Gunn Jr., president of PBS.

The service distributes programs to 211 television stations across the country.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had said in a letter to National Educational Television, which produced the 10-minute segment, that "on the basis of information available to the bureau, each of the charges is totally and absolutely false in each and every particular."

Hoover said the matter had been referred to the Justice Department for investigation.

"The fact that this incident took place at all justifies concern," Macdonald said in a statement Thursday. "But the fact that it involves our public broadcasting system makes it even more serious."

"I am hopeful that this inquiry into the facts surrounding the cancellation of this program will help to put to rest the issue of governmental censorship of legitimate news."

Macdonald said the PBS inquiry would involve the decision by the service to delete the controversial section.

Spa Accident Fatal to Man

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Charles E. Gable, 50, of Mount Ida was killed Thursday in a two-vehicle collision eight miles east of Hot Springs on U.S. 270.

Children didn't feel underprivileged if they had to walk a mile to get to school.

People didn't feel the need of being endlessly entertained. A whole family would sit on the front porch on nights having a wonderful time just laughing and talking together.

Negro Lawyer May Get Key Demo Post

WASHINGTON (AP) —

Democratic officials are strongly considering Patricia Roberts Harris, one of the nation's most prominent black lawyers, for the key post of acting chairman of the credentials committee for the party's 1972 nominating convention.

Lawrence F. O'Brien, the Democratic national chairman, is expected to make a recommendation at a meeting next week of the national committee, which will select the acting chairman.

O'Brien was reported checking Thursday with party leaders around the country to get their reaction to Mrs. Harris and Sen. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa, an open candidate for the job.

The credentials committee will have to deal with an expected large number of credentials challenges resulting from new delegate selection reforms aimed at democratizing the nominating process.

The committee chairman will name hearing examiners in each case.

Hughes, who dropped potential presidential candidacy in July, has been vice chairman and a key member of the party commission that drew up the reforms.

Some party leaders feel that the credentials chairman should be someone with a judicial background who was not involved in the drafting of reform guidelines.

Mrs. Harris, a former U.S. ambassador to Luxembourg, also was dean of the Howard University Law School. She is the first black woman named to a number of corporate boards of directors and, politically, has been aligned closely with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey.

Some Facts About Phase 2 of Freeze

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are answers to some of the most frequently asked questions about President Nixon's Phase 2 economic program, scheduled to go into effect Nov. 14:

Q. Is my salary still frozen?

A. No. But wages in Phase 2 will be subject to review by a three-part Pay Board, composed of labor, management and public representatives. When it is formed, it will develop wage criteria for the nation.

Q. How do you translate the goal of 2 to 3 per cent inflation, as President Nixon has proposed, into a permissible wage guideline?

A. That will be the job of the Pay Board. But economists think it means a wage guideline of generally 5 to 6 per cent. This is determined by linking salaries to productivity, worker output-per-man-hour, which is rising at about 3 per cent a year.

Q. Can I get a contract increase that was supposed to go into effect during the freeze?

A. Maybe. Again, this is the job of the Pay Board. Suppose you were due a 10-cent-an-hour raise on Aug. 16, but it was frozen until Nov. 13. On Nov. 14, that 10-cent-an-hour boost will be subject to the wage criteria developed by the Pay Board, which could decide it's either too much or within the standards.

Q. What about the pay I lost from Aug. 16 to Nov. 13? Do I get the retroactive pay?

A. The government now says no, or at least has strongly implied no by saying that "wages were frozen and that's that." But this is a hot issue with organized labor. The issue may not yet be totally resolved.

Q. Are prices and rents free to zoom up after Nov. 13?

A. No. Both will be subject to price standards developed by the Price Commission, a seven-member group composed of public members.

Q. How much will prices be allowed to rise?

A. Again, that's the Price Commission's job. But they will have to fit their standards within Nixon's goal of reducing the rise in prices to no more than 2 to 3 per cent by the end of 1972.

Q. How long can I expect Phase 2 to last?

A. Some economists would say until there is a Phase 3, implying continued massive, comprehensive and permanent controls. The administration doesn't want to put a termination date on Phase 2 for strategic reasons. If you say it is going to end next July 1, for example, it could lead to a big explosion in wages and prices shortly after. The best answer is that Phase 2 will probably last at least a year, perhaps longer, perhaps permanently. No one knows.

Q. Will the government or the various boards publish price guidelines to let people know what they should be paying for certain items in various areas?

A. Again, this is uncertain. It is likely there will be price ceilings, such as there are now under the freeze, and they would be determined by the Price Commission. The best guess now is that the ceilings will be based on the freeze price, plus an acceptable percentage rise published by the Price Commission. This would avoid the comprehensive control job of determining the price ceilings for each individual item.

Plenty of Top College Games on Saturday

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
If Columbia can upset Princeton after a quarter of a century as the Lions did last week maybe Oklahoma will surprise Texas in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

The battle of the two unbeaten, untied teams highlights the college football card this weekend. Texas is third-ranked nationally, Oklahoma No. 8 and their annual meeting usually is referred to as "a war."

The Sooners' hopes of an upset were brightened by news that Eddie Phillips, No. 1 quarterback for the favored Longhorns may not start because of a hamstring muscle he reinjured.

"We've got problems," commented Darrell Royal, Texas coach, "but we're delighted to go to war with Donnie Wigginton."

Wigginton is the No. 2 QB for Texas. "He's not a choker," Royal said. "He'll fight to the last drop."

Sharing interest with the Oklahoma-Texas clash in Dallas is the battle between second-ranked Michigan and unranked Michigan State at East Lansing. The Spartans are primed to upset the favored Wolverines in this nationally televised game over the ABC network.

Nebraska, No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings, is expected to have an easy time against Missouri for its fifth straight. Likewise No. 4 Auburn against Southern Mississippi and No. 5 Colorado against Iowa State.

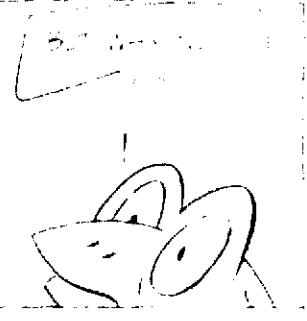

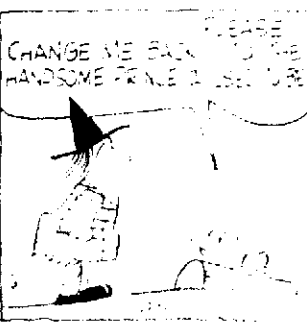

In other games involving teams in the AP Top Ten, No. 6 Alabama is at Vanderbilt, No. 7 Notre Dame at Miami, Fla., No. 9 Penn State entertains Army and No. 10 Georgia plays Mississippi at Jackson. The Alabama-Vandy and Notre Dame-Miami games will be played Saturday night.

Among the AP Second Ten, No. 11 Washington hosts No. 19 Stanford, No. 12 Arizona State is at Colorado State, Georgia Tech is at No. 13 Tennessee, No. 14 Duke takes on Clemson at Norfolk, Va., No. 15 Ohio State is at Illinois and Florida State is at No. 16 Louisiana State in a night encounter.

Arkansas, No. 17, is at Baylor in another night struggle. North Carolina, No. 18, is at home to Tulane and Toledo, No. 20, is at Bowling Green.

San Jose State and Long Beach State get the weekend started by playing tonight at Anaheim, Calif.

NCAA Warns Tulsa TV Station

By DENNIS ECKERT

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A Tulsa judge eyed a state map showing communities near Tulsa where football fans could watch Saturday's televised Oklahoma-Texas clash and ruled that Tulsa County was "a veritable island in a sea of television viewing" of the annual classic.

Therefore, said District Judge Raymond W. Graham, Tulsans should have the opportunity to see the contest televised live over a Tulsa station. KTUL-TV, Challen 8, immediately announced it would televise the game barring further NCAA legal action.

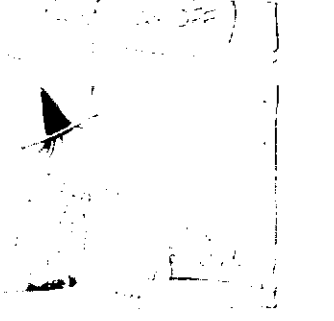

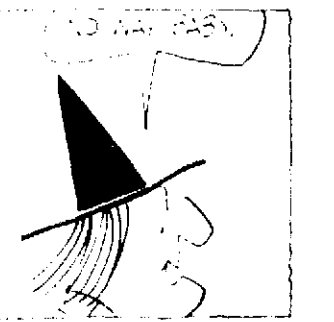

But the NCAA warned that additional action may be taken—including possible sanctions against OU and Texas.

Judge Graham's order, coming after a three-hour hearing Thursday night and a day of chasing after a federal judge, made permanent a temporary injunction he issued Tuesday prohibiting the National Collegiate Athletic Association from holding a television "blackout" of the game here.

The suit was filed by three Tulsa sports fans, one of whom is hospitalized with a broken leg and didn't want to travel some 40 miles to pick up the game televised over an Oklahoma City station. He couldn't go to the downtown Civic Assembly Center for a closed-circuit presentation of the game.

Hope Star SPORTS

Crossett Is Crushed in Second Half

Statistics sometimes don't show exactly what kind of a ballgame was played, but the figures compiled at Hammons Stadium last night pretty well indicated who the best team was—the Hope Bobcats.

With the defense playing its usual fine game, the offense started up the big machine with the crushing ground attack and rolled over Crossett's Eagles, 29-6, for their fourth victory in six games.

Totalling up over 300 yards rushing and 100 passing, the Cats played possession football, using the clock and moving the ball. For the first few minutes neither team could move the football, until Hope took possession with 6:46 showing in the first segment and in just two plays scored, on a 49 yard option run by quarterback Robby Boyd. Buddy Ingram sailed the PAT through the middle for a 7-0 Hope lead and the Cats were ready to kick off.

Getting possession of the ball a few minutes later, Hope seemed to be driving for another score when a fumbled ball gave the Eagles possession at their own nine yard line with a little over two minutes left in the first quarter.

Moving into the second frame, Bobcat Steve Harris intercepted an Eagle aerial throw at the Crossett 36 yard line and two plays later Boyd hit tight end Ricky Hart with a 36 yard pass for the second Cat score. The extra point attempt was blocked but with 8:03 left in the first half, Hope had a 13-0 lead.

Several possessions later, Crossett started out from their own 14 yard line and in four plays moved to their 38. On first and ten with 1:27 left in the half, Eagle quarterback Mike Hutchins connected with halfback Mike Freeland for a 62 yard touchdown bomb, Crossett's only score of the night. Ricky Williams extra point attempt sailed wide to the left and Hope still had their 13-6 lead, later carrying the same margin into the dressing room at halftime.

Taking the second kickoff, the Cats started from their own 25 yard line and on the third play, halfback Ray Wheelington followed his blocking beautifully up the middle for a 72 yard touchdown scamper and a 21-6 Bobcat margin with 10:33 left in the quarter after a two point conversion try was also successful.

Less than two minutes later the Bobcats again had the ball after forcing an Eagle punt to the Hope 30 yard line.

Using the running of Tommy Miller, David Johnson, and Wheelington the Cats ground out yardage to the Crossett ten yard line before a major penalty moved the ball back to the 25 yard line. A third down running play netted nothing, but on fourth down the Cats went for it all.

With the clock showing 2:28 left in the third quarter, Boyd faded back behind his pass protection and unleashed a 25 yard toss to Wheelington, who was all alone over the middle, for the final Bobcat tally of the night. Johnson streaked around right end for the two point conversion and Hope had a comfortable 29-6 lead, which is the way it ended.

Neither team could mount much in the last stanza, trading the ball on punts.

Hope now goes to Arkadelphia for another big game, this one with Badgers, next Friday with gametime at 7:30 p.m.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The New Orleans Saints have activated linebacker Tom Rousell, who missed all three regular season games with a broken wrist.

Rousell replaces rookie defensive back Richard Harvey on the 40-man roster. Harvey was placed on the Saints' future list, making a decision necessary by Monday on his status for the rest of the season.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Ann Hollier of Opelousas, a physical education teacher, is Louisiana Women's Golf champion for the third time.

Miss Hollier, who won the state title in 1968 and 1969, took it again Friday by defeating Mrs. Robert Postle of Slidell 7 and 6 in the 36-hole final round of the match play tourney. It was played over the 5,865-yard, par-72 Timberland Country Club course.

Washington in a Rare Position

By ED SCHYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Washington Redskins will remain unbeaten and the Pittsburgh Steelers will experience the rare feeling of being alone in first place.

That's how it will be Sunday after the Redskins run their perfect record, the only one in the National Football League, to 4-0 by beating Houston and the Steelers defeat Cleveland to take undisputed possession of first place in the American Conference's Eastern Division.

At least that's how it looks to this predictor who was not exactly unbeaten in his first start of the season last week. The record read 7-5-1. Having gotten the feel of the picking business, here goes: Washington 20, Houston 10—The Redskins have the right running-passing combination to win again. They will have to guard against a letdown after big victory over Dallas but chance for victories in first four games—something a Washington team hasn't done in 28 years—should be enough incentive.

Pittsburgh 24, Cleveland 20—Terry Bradshaw's continued improvement and a chance to break a first-place tie with an arch-rival will spark the Steelers past the Browns who are coming off a tough loss in a Monday night game.

Detroit 24, Green Bay 13—The Lions are banged up on offense but their defense is healthy and should mean the difference in another battle of arch rivals. Baltimore 27, Buffalo 14—The Colts, who played a 17-17 tie and then won a 20-14 squeaker with Buffalo last year, have the defense to stop Dennis Shaw and O.J. Simpson of the Bills while their own Don Nottingham and Norm Bulaich pound out yards. Bulaich sat out last week with a bruised knee.

San Francisco 20, Los Angeles 6—The two clubs are pretty closely matched on defense but Los Angeles can't match the 49ers' scoring punch built around the passing of John Brodie and Ken Willard's running. Kansas City 27, San Diego 7—Kansas City led the Chargers 14-0 at halftime in the season opener at San Diego and then lost 21-14. Len Dawson and Chiefs' defense won't let it happen again.

Oakland 23, Denver 16—Darley Lamonica will get Oakland an edge in touchdowns while George Blanda will kick Denver's Jim Turner to a standstill in a field-goal battle.

Minnesota 27, Philadelphia 7—Philadelphia has a new coach but the Vikings have the horses and the result will be the same for the winless Eagles.

Chicago 23, New Orleans 17—Kent Nix will start at quarterback in place of injured Jack Concannon as the Bears celebrate the season debut of running back Gale Sayers with a victory.

Miami 28, Cincinnati 17—The Dolphins' passer Bob Griese and runners Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick, bottled up in tie with Jets, should roll while Cincinnati stalls with rookie quarterback Ken Anderson at the controls in place of Virgil Carter, out with a shoulder separation.

New York Jets 20, New England 10—The Jets have the kind of active defense that can really trouble a rookie quarterback, even if his name is Jim Plunkett.

Atlanta 31, St. Louis 17—Atlanta's Bob Berry continues to have a big passing season against Cardinals who are coming off an upset loss to Giants for their first road game of the year.

High School Football Roundup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At 7:05 Friday night, a physician pronounced Roger Carter fit to play football.

Good news for Fort Smith Northside. Bad news for Little Rock Catholic. Carter, Northside's outstanding tailback who had missed the past two games with a deeply bruised back, scored all 13 points as the top-ranked Grizzlies defeated the second-ranked Rockets 13-7 in a AAAA showdown.

Both Northside and Catholic had 2-0 conference records prior to the game.

Three other members of the top 10 lost. Fourth-ranked Benton dropped a 21-6 decision to Little Rock McClellan; sixth-ranked El Dorado fell to Pine Bluff 27-21 and 10th-ranked Texarkana lost to eighth-ranked Hot Springs 24-21.

Fifth-ranked Stuttgart won its fifth in a row, beating Wynne 34-0. Seventh-ranked Rogers remained unbeaten with a 3-0 victory over Mountain Home and ninth-ranked Forrest City dropped Marianna 28-14. Third-ranked Little Rock Hall was idle.

Carter, who gained 136 yards on 25 carries and caught two passes for an additional 36 yards, gave Northside a 6-0 lead when he went over from one yard out with 29 seconds left in the half. Catholic took the second half kickoff and marched 88 yards with Pat Campbell scoring from five yards out with three minutes left in the third period. Carter's 12-yard scoring run with 10:27 remaining in the game put the Grizzlies ahead to stay.

El Dorado turned three Pine Bluff miscues into a 21-0 lead but the Zebras rallied to win with three touchdowns in the fourth quarter, including two in the final 90 seconds. El Dorado held a 21-15 lead when Mike Turchi rambled three yards for his second touchdown of the game with 1:28 left to play. The extra point attempt missed after hitting the right upright and the score was tied 21-21. Wayne Harper recovered an El Dorado fumble seconds later and on second down Monroe Deshazier passed 17 yards to David Crow for the winning TD. The victory was the Zebras' first of the year.

McClellan, 2-0 in AAA-East competition, grabbed a 14-0 lead in the first half on touchdown runs by David Hines and Virgil Peary. Benton, unbeaten in AAA-West, scored in the third quarter on an eight-yard run by Samuel Calvin but the Lions clinched the victory when Mark Taylor raced nine yards for a score with six minutes left in the game.

Hot Springs, defending champion in AAA-West, kept alive its title hopes with the victory over Texarkana. Hot Springs is now 2-1 in conference play and Texarkana is 1-1. The Trojans scored three of their touchdowns after recovering fumbled punts at the Texarkana 8, 17 and 33. Ed French threw 37 yards to Larry Thompson for one Hot Springs score and tossed a 13-yard scoring pass to Pete Campbell late in the third period that proved to be the winning touchdown.

North Little Rock scored twice in nine seconds to break a 7-7 tie and defeat North Little Rock Northeast 21-13 in a AAAA game. The Wildcats took the lead 14-7 when Stan McClure threw a 38-yard pass to Charles Walker with 5:55 left in the Jonesboro quarterback John Kitterman threw a 15-yard scoring pass to John Seaborn with 15 seconds remaining the game and then completed a two-point conversion pass to Bob Richards as the Hurricane edged Jacksonville 21-17. The victory was the first of the year for Jonesboro, defending champion in AAA-East.

Helena and Fort Smith Southside, both AAA teams, defeated Class AA opponents. Helena whipped Camden 22-14 and Southside crushed Van Buren 34-7.

Camden grabbed an 8-7 lead but Helena rallied in the fourth quarter on Tommy Fridell's five-yard run and Kenny Fielder's 40-yard return of an intercepted pass.

Southside scored twice in 33 seconds of the first quarter and had little trouble with Van Buren.

Two other AAA teams had their problems. Blytheville dropped a 27-7 decision to Brownsville, Tenn., and Springdale was upset by Class AA Siloam Springs 7-6.

Most athletic injuries are things like sprained ankles, pulled muscles or torn ligaments. But Kansas U. defensive halfback Mike Burton had a unique mishap—he was bitten by a piranha. Burton keeps the fish as a pet and it chomped off the tip of his left ring finger as he was feeding it. The bite didn't keep Burton out of action.

Stargell Heads All-Star

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Willie Stargell, this season's power-hitting sensation, beat out Vida Blue, the season's pitching standout, as the top vote-getter in the annual All-Major League team poll conducted by Newspaper Enterprise Association.

The closest balloting involved shortstop, one outfield spot and relief pitcher. Minnesota shortstop Leo Cardenas narrowly beat out Don Kessinger of the Cubs, Henry Aaron of Atlanta edged the Yankees' Bobby Murcer and Jerry Johnson of San Francisco was named relief pitcher over Dave Giusti of Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh and Minnesota were honored with two players on the All-Major League squad: For Pittsburgh, Stargell and catcher Manny Sanguillen. For Minnesota, outfielder Tony Oliva and Cardenas.

Sanguillen's elevation bumped Johnny Bench of Cincinnati for the first time in two years. In fact, Bench had been the top vote-getter on the team the last two years. Sanguillen's margin was considerable, 420 to 126.

The lone repeaters from last season's team were Aaron and Glenn Beckert of the Cubs. This is Aaron's third straight year on the team.

The rest of the squad includes Lee May of Cincinnati at first base and Joe Torre of St. Louis at third.

In voting for NEA and (name your paper), the players crossed league boundaries to select the 10 finest men in the game, and wound up picking seven National Leaguers and three American Leaguers.

Interestingly, the World Champion Baltimore Orioles placed no one on the first team. Boog Powell, who made it last season, received eight votes this year. Brooks Robinson made the second team behind Torre. And only Jim Palmer of their heralded pitching staff received any votes. Palmer had two.

Dave McNally Is Calm as Usual

By GORDON BEARD

Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Dave McNally, a winner in five of six postseason decisions, approaches Saturday's World Series starting assignment with characteristic calm.

"It makes no difference to me who I face," the Baltimore pitcher said of Pittsburgh's power-packed lineup. "All I can do is win or lose."

In recent years, McNally has mostly been winning. During the past four regular seasons, the 28-year-old left-hander has won 87 and lost only 31 while topping the 20-game mark each time.

He has won a game in each of the last three American League playoffs and his record in World Series competition, dating back to 1966, is 2-1. The loss was by a 2-1 score to the New York Mets in 1969.

The Pirates, who hit .274 as a team during the regular season, will start five right-handed batters with averages ranging between .271 and .341 against McNally.

"I really don't think about all right-handers I'll be facing," McNally said, "because that's what we (lefties) always get. There must be four times as many right-handed as left-handed batters."

Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver said while Pittsburgh has a balanced attack from both sides of the plate, "there seemed to be more reasons for pitching a left-hander."

As a result, Weaver has set up a left-right-left rotation, following McNally with 20-game winners Jim Palmer and Mike Cuellar. The results of the first three games will determine what follows.
